Constriction. Wasting. It's hard to believe that just two words can describe the experiences of so many people who want to obey God's calling. As soon as we try to come into the destiny prepared for us from the beginning of time, everything seems to conspire against us. It's almost as if God is powerless to defend us against the strangling, choking forces arrayed against us. It's also hard to believe the answer can be summed up in just two words: threshold covenant.

Guilt says, 'I made a mistake.' Shame says, 'I am a mistake.' Shame affects both our identity and our destiny in Christ. Name covenants and threshold covenants are meant to usher us into the hidden place in Christ where He is our shield and inheritance. When the door into our calling opens but we wind up knowing more about constriction and wasting than fullness of life, it's time to examine what's gone wrong.
