The Silk Merchant of Sychar

AU

RRP: $24.99 (Faith Fiction)

Author: Cindy Williams | Publisher: Rhiza Press

Release Date: 10/11/2019 | Format: Paperback | Pages: 264

Size: 15.2 x 22.9 cm

DESCRIPTION: One woman, five husbands and the weary rabbi at the well who knows everything she ever did.

The day after they bury her husband Leah Marcellus loses her baby. A widow and childless, what man will want her now? Her father arranges a second marriage—a profitable business arrangement—sealed on Mount Gerizim, the holy mountain where every true follower of Yahweh worships, but Leah's heart belongs to another. Her passion only brings trouble - jealousy, murder and lies. Leah's skill at the loom and the secrets of dye—the woad, the murex and madder—brings her renown among the Roman women of wealth. Yet death and betrayal soon steal her security. In desperation, Leah sacrifices her peace of mind and risks everything to protect her family.

From the olive groves of Samaria to the bloodied sand of a Roman stadium to the exquisite silks brought from the East, The Silk Merchant of Sychar weaves colour into the biblical account of the woman at the well.

The Last Qumranian (Infinity Chronicles # 1)

RRP: 24.95 (Christian Fantasy Fiction)

AU

Author: Joe Basile | Publisher: Odyssey Books

Release Date: 01/10/2019 | Format: Paperback

Pages: 296 | Size: 14.0 x 21.6 cm

ISBN: 9781925652673

DESCRIPTION: Lukas is the last Qumranian, an ancient sect sworn to secrecy and to protect the prophecies that bind the worlds together. They develop a powerful technology that can control time, and their discovery attracts unwanted attention. When the Unclean—a militant force masked by dark magic—attack the hidden Qumranian compound under what once was the Dead Sea, Lukas barely escapes. But at what cost? With his life intact, he finds himself a prisoner in a timeline not his own. Alone in a foreign landscape, a ruthless religious group slaughtering any who oppose them in the streets, and an artefact that literally can—and probably has—changed human history, Lukas must not only struggle to stay alive, but locate the only thing that can prevent the Unclean from destroying the world. Will Lukas manage to retrieve the artefact before more damage is done to the timeline of history, or will he be too late, forever lost in an alternate reality?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

JOE BASILE grew up in Chicago as the youngest of ten siblings. Much of his life was shaped by the death of his mother at a young age. He dropped out of high school and became a rap artist. As that evolved, his Christian friends' love and fearless sharing of the gospel gravitated him to Christ. After he gave his life to Christ, he shifted to rapping about Jesus, but eventually felt called to become a pastor. Joe is best known for his work on the HISTORY Channel's documentary, The Jesus Strand: A Search For DNA. This is the first book in his new science fiction series, The Infinity Chronicles, and is soon to be followed by his highly anticipated graphic novel, Lukas, partnered and designed by artists from Marvel, DC, and Image.

The Thing about Oliver

AU

Author: Deborah Kelly | Publisher: Wombat Books

Release Date: 01/10/2019 | Format: Paperback

Size: 15.2 x 22.9 cm

ISBN: 9781925563818

DESCRIPTION: Eleven-year-old Tilly lives in a drought-stricken town with her mum and younger brother Oliver, who is autistic. Oliver's meltdowns are making life unbearable. He can't cope with even the smallest of changes to his routine. On top of that, he needs so many different kinds of therapy that there's never any time -or money- left over for swimming lessons.

When Mum loses her job and decides to move the family to the Queensland coast, Tilly is both excited and terrified. Is this her chance to finally learn to swim? Will her dream of snorkelling on the Great Barrier Reef come true? Or will so many changes all at once prove disastrous?

There are only two things MJ wants in her final year of high school: 1) Glowing grades and ... 2) to convince uber-smart, chiselled-jaw Jason they'd be a winning team outside the science lab as well as in. Tutoring deadbeat drummer, Luke, isn't part of the plan. After all, he has average intelligence, takes disorganised notes and looks like a partied-out zombie at their study sessions! Not even his taut biceps will win MJ over. But MJ learns that she could be tutored in a few life lessons too: That sometimes there's good reason to skip chemistry tutorials. That intelligence is so much more than a grade average. And that sometimes you can't beat the chemistry.

A Hero for Miss Hatherleigh (Regency Brides - Daughters of Aynsley #1)

RRP: $24.99 (Faith Fiction)

ISBN: 9780825445897

Author: Carolyn Miller | Format: Paperback

Publisher: Kregel Publications | Pages: 336

Release Date: 19/03/2019 | Size: 13.97 x 21.59 cm

DESCRIPTION: As the daughter of Viscount Aynsley, Caroline Hatherleigh knows every rule of society--and she's always followed them precisely. But when she visits south Devonshire and encounters a fossil-hunting scientist and his sister, her assumptions about what is right are shaken. Questions she has never considered about the importance of friendship and faith suddenly confront her--and her comfortable understanding about how the world works is thrown off balance. What if God wants to be the center of her life, rather than merely a social obligation?

Gideon Kirby loves science, and hunting down proof of past lives is a joy he won't willingly give up. But his scientific leanings are being challenged both by his personal beliefs and by local smugglers in the Devonshire countryside. And every day his sister's illness becomes more desperate, her care growing more demanding. Adding a viscount's daughter to the mix is a complication Gideon never expected--especially since he must stay far away from this young woman he's falling for in order to protect his beloved sister's secret.

When a mysterious stranger visits the village, that secret will be exposed, no matter how Gideon fights. Then tragedy strikes in a smugglers' cave. And the threat of scandal may lead to broken hearts and passionless propriety. Will the shaky bond these two have nurtured be strong enough to overcome their differences--or will the trust they've withheld from each other tear three lives apart?

Underestimating Miss Cecilia (Regency Brides - Daughters of Aynsley #2)

RRP: $24.99 (Faith Fiction)

Author: Catherine Marshall | Format: Paperback

Publisher: Kregel Publications | Pages: 352

Release Date: 23/07/2019 | Size: 13.97 x 21.59 cm

DESCRIPTION: Cecilia Hatherleigh has many secrets in her shy, sweet heart--but none bigger than her unrequited love for Edward Amherst, the earl's son next door. Her love has persevered over many years, even when he grows to be a bit of a rake. Yet despite his fondness for females, he never seems to see her as anything more than the quiet younger sister, and nothing Cecy does has changed that. Rather than pining after his perhaps unworthy love, she decides to turn her focus toward living out her newly found faith. Now she's determined to follow God's leading to make a better world for the poor and dispossessed around her.

A London riot awakens Edward to the responsibilities due his family name. It's time to turn his life around to please his noble father--and that means restoring his abandoned legal career and making a marriage of convenience. Neither will be easy, given his past and the prejudices of the upper echelons of society to which he belongs.

When misadventure strikes at a house party, these two are thrown together even as their lives are upended. If Cecy can't trust God, overcome her shyness, and find her inner strength, the good work they've both done may be for naught--and neither will ever find true love ...

DESCRIPTION: Even before its completion and official opening in January, 1903, the Sydney Sanitarium had admitted and treated its first patient. Situated on a hilltop in the then-rural locality of Wahroonga, the hospital's mission would reach around the world, lead innovation in medical, nursing and ethical practice, and continue to adapt to the changing healthcare needs, environment and economy. Sydney Adventist Hospital—still affectionately known to many as "The San"—is a landmark in Sydney's northern suburbs. A pioneer in wholistic healthcare, the hospital is committed to health of body, mind and spirit for its patients, staff and community. This is a collection of stories from the history of the San, as well as reflections on how this history has been shaped by mission and what it means to be a hospital with a mission today. Written by contributors with many years' experience at Sydney Adventist Hospital, these are stories of "Christianity in Action".

CALEB AWARD WINNER

DESCRIPTION: "It is not so much great faith that we need, but faith in a great God." At the age of 21, Hudson Taylor ventured on a dangerous sea voyage to take the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the people of China. Why would a young man give up a promising future to venture into an alien country, let alone one torn apart by war? Would the Chinese accept him and would God bless his vision? His story comes alive in this dramatised biography that relays the humanity, humour, and heart of the man widely regarded as one of the most significant and influential missionaries in the history of the Christian Church.

ISBN: 9780989063203

DESCRIPTION: Fifteen-year-old Skye is a middle child, wishing she had a life that didn't include daily harassment from the in-crowd at Highland Creek High School. Thanks to fellow band geek and best friend Goose, Skye survives freshman year—just barely. But now in their sophomore year, Goose has ditched her for a new crowd. Skye is alone, wishing she had that touch of extraordinary that everyone else has. Everyone except her. Skye would do almost anything to cast off her ordinary life, but at what price? When her older sister Sarah Elizabeth goes missing, Skye gets her wish—but it's not exactly what she had in mind. After questioning Bryan, the senior-class renegade and the last person seen with her sister, Skye finds something she never quite expected. Girl in the Middle is an emotional look at what happens when a family is faced with a huge crisis, leaving the middle child with a new, unwelcomed role.

Name Covenant: Invitation to Friendship (Strategies for the Threshold #3)

RRP: $21.99 (Devotional Theology) AU

ISBN: 9781925380132

Author: Anne Hamilton
Release Date: 01/12/2018 ??
Publisher: Armour Books

DESCRIPTION: Abram became Abraham. Jacob became Israel. Simon became Peter. Name covenanting seems at first like an archaic, long-discarded practice that disappeared in the first century around the time Saul became Paul. The patriarchs and apostles exchanged names and so received new destinies. But that was then. And this is now. However name covenanting never went away. Robert Louis Stevenson became Teriitera. Paul Gauguin became Tioka. James Cook became Terreeoboo. Arthur Phillip became Woollarawarre. These recent examples throw light on this ancient practice of friendship and kinship. They show us that, when God offers a new name, more than simply a new calling is attached. It's an invitation to friendship with Him. This is the third book in the ground-breaking Strategies for the Threshold series. It features the second of the five covenants highlighted through Scripture. Previous volumes include Dealing with Python: Spirit of Constriction as well as Dealing with Ziz: Spirit of Forgetting.
